

#jointheexodus

Take some time this week to retrace the steps of the Exodus. Go on a walk in your neighborhood or at a nearby park and take these questions with you. Consider this to be a walk to take with God and invite him to speak to you as you ask these questions.

What Am I Being Delivered From?

Like the Hebrews, everyone on a journey with God is being delivered from something. What, especially in this time of your life, can you identify that you desire to be free of?

What Is My Wilderness?

What are you challenged by right now? What stress, pressures, loss, or pain are you experiencing? Can you identify how God is with you in that?

What Is My Promised Land?

Like Joseph, we can carry a hope and trust in what God is doing. Can you identify how God is shaping you to be more like Jesus through your current situation? What does the with-God life look like after the current season?

For this reason I kneel before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name. I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen. (Ephesians 3:14-21)
